

WELCOME TO JAPAN

Picture Hunt

How To Enjoy Picture Hunting

Look for your answer(s) to each question in the pictures in WELCOME TO JAPAN.

The answer may appear more than once on different pages throughout the book, including the front and back covers and the bilingual pages.

The blue numbers at the bottom of each question show how many correct images are in the book.

ピクチャーハントの楽しみ方

WELCOME TO JAPANの絵本の中から、それぞれの質問に対する答えを探しましょう。

答えは複数のページにあるかもしれません。絵本の表紙から裏表紙まで、歌詞の対訳も含みます。

各問題の下にある青い数字が、答えの絵がいくつあるかを示しています。

Look for...

a pheasant.

It is the national bird of Japan.

3

Look for...

a woman.

She has a frog hat on her head.

1

Look for...

a young man.

He is eating ice cream and reading
a book.

2

Look for...

a robot.

It has two arms (or legs) and one eye.

3

Look for...

a cute character.

It has swirls on its cheeks.

4

Look for...

a boy and a girl.

They are joyfully jumping in front of the rising sun.

4

Look for...

kanji characters.

Each kanji represents a mountain,
spring, summer, fall, and winter.

5

Look for...

a ninja.

He is surfing the waves.

4

Look for...

people sitting on the train.

They are wearing historical clothes
from different eras.

2

Look for...

"anime and manga"

written in English and Japanese.

4

Look for...

"Thank you" messages

in English and Japanese.

6

Look for...

an ad for "beautifully blackened teeth."

in Japanese.

2

What is this child standing on?

What is this child standing on?

She is standing on the roof of a temple.

What is this boy doing?

What is this boy doing?

He is manipulating sticky threads of natto.